14. What would you like to share with your chapter or affiliate members about these events? *
Much planning and organizing goes into these events which are centered around the improvement of the society, profession, and members. Most people don't understand the level of commitment needed to accomplish what happened during these meetings and

15. What additional information would you like to share with chapter or affiliate members about the annual governance meeting? *

The importance of being engaged even if you (the individual) does not feel ready to participate. Most individual technologists sell themselves short on the value they can bring to the profession and our future. They need to understand that we are there to support them and help them grow into these roles.
